MATTHEW LILLEY

MINISTRY TIMELINE

I live in Greenville, NC with my wife Shepard, our three daughters and son, and we are members of Opendoor Church. Here is a brief overview of our ministry journey.

2002

Launched 6:22 Ministries in Greenville, NC, including Friday night gatherings, annual Worshipfest conference, multiple worship albums and regional ministry tours.

2006

Licensed for Gospel ministry at my local church by Greg Kennedy and Elliotte Pearson

2007

Married my high school sweetheart Shepard

2011

Received my Bachelor of Biblical Studies degree from Covenant Theological Seminary

2014

Became the Southeast US Regional Director for Burn 24-7

2017

Launching 24-7 North Carolina initiative to unite the state in 24-7 prayer in the spirit of the tabernacle of David

2002

I encountered God at a summer camp. As I laid down on the dirty floor, God began to cleanse my heart, take my fear, give me vision and commission me into His service for the rest of my life. After hours on the floor, I stood up as a "living sacrifice" (Romans 12:1), a changed young man.

2003

6:22 hosted first 24-hour worship event. 6:22 would evolve into The Burn: Greenville.

2007

Quit my job to raise support and become a full-time prayer missionary

2009

6:22 launched The Boiler Room, a house of prayer missions base in uptown Greenville, NC, hosting thousands of hours of prayer, young adult internships and special events.

2012

Met Sean Feucht and joined the Burn 24-7 movement, a global worship, prayer & missions organization with nearly 200 "furnaces" hosting extended times of citywide worship & prayer.

2016

God led us to close the Boiler Room
