

New Endeavors

September 2021 Update

Like many of you, we were finally able to pull off a successful family vacation this summer after a difficult season that has affected us all. Additionally, as missionaries with adult daughters, we do not often find ourselves on the same continent! We were thankful to take in the grandeur of the beautiful states of Colorado and Utah.

As reported in our last update, our main trajectory is now Prague, Czech Republic, with a planned move in 2022. Myra and I are preaching there via Zoom twice a month, and I will travel there in mid-November for team training, the first baptisms, and preparing for our eventual move. This trip will be in conjunction with me teaching at our Every Nation Europe Evangelist Summit in Ghent, Belgium.

Myra has begun her Ph.D. studies at Asbury Theological Seminary, and even though it has been a few years since she had to juggle being a full-time mother and a planter/minister, she is now entering a season where she is devoting all her gifts to ministry projects, some of which she leads.

Along with her advanced studies in missiology, she continues developing some of the curricula for our EN online courses, preaching, and developing our planting strategy for Prague. This is quite an encouraging transition for her and even for both of us as we plan to move to Prague and continue developing other planters in central and eastern Europe.

To achieve our next ministry goals, I will be focusing on partnership development through the end of the year while taking some essential ministry trips. Our areas of upgrade will be our personal budget and the startup planting budget for Prague. Additionally, we want to raise the extra support to bring Myra on salary, so we appreciate your consideration for increasing your partnership or becoming a new partner in this mission. We also appreciate referrals to mission-minded friends, and I will be reaching out to many of you concerning this soon.

Thanks again for your friendships, prayers, and generosity as we continue to serve God in reaching the nations.

Blessings!
Mike & Myra
